ABSTRACT

Over one-hundred and fifty citations of books, journals and a few dissertations dating from 1938 to 1971 (the majority of which were published in the 1960's) are included in this bibliography focusing on the Chicano. The broad scope deals with Mexicans in America in general, with social, economic, political, and educational problems of this minority group, and with Mexican history. Author entries, arranged alphabetically, are grouped under the major headings of education materials, high school materials, history of Mexico, literature, political science, Pre-Columbian history, sociology, and South West history. In addition to the above, a list of Chicano journals, newspapers, and reference materials is given. (SJM)
